FAST WORK WITH SUGAR

"When the Helene takes her load of sugar away we will begin to have breathing room," said Captain Clark yesterday, as he surveyed the piles of sugar sacks stacked up to the roof in the Oceanic warehouse. For some time there has been a glut of sugar in the big building, but the vessels that have arrived within the past few days are gradually diminishing the stock so that the men now have room to move around in.

There has been some very fast work done in loading some of the sugar packets recently. The steamer Alameda loaded 10,000 bags of Honolulu refined sugar at the Railway Wharf the other day and some of the men who were loading her were somewhat tickled over the fast work. But this performance was thrown in the shade by the record made by a gang of men under Stevedore Kane, who loaded sugar into the Irmgard at the Fort street wharf Monday. From 7:15 a. m. to 2:15 p. m. 11,530 bags were put in the barkentine's hold by the men. There were 27 men in the hold and 20 men with trucks. The men who pass the sugar over the side were relieved every fifteen minutes, working at trucking while not passing the bags. After loading this sugar the vessel went over to the Channel Wharf and took 2,000 bags more.

It is reported also that the bark Santiago loaded 16,000 bags in one full day last week. This is fast work, but it will take some time to get away with the piles of sugar that have been accumulating in the local warehouses. The steamers Oregonian and Nebraskan, due this week, will help make a hole in the enormous store piled up in the railway warehouses.

Steamers en route.

Unless the rough weather keeps them back, today should be a red letter one in the way of steamer arrivals. Among those due are the American-Hawaiian liner Oregonian from Seattle, reported off port last night, the Canadian-Australian liner Mowera from the Colonies on her way to Victoria, the transpacific Sherman and Sheridan from Manila, and the Buford from Portland. Tomorrow the Nebraskan is due from San Francisco and Saturday the Aorangi will be in from Victoria.

Edward May Arrives.

The bark Edward May was sighted off Koko Head last evening and came flying along Waikiki beach in a race with the sun so as to make the offing before sunset and get the doctor. She made her anchorage in time and was inspected. The tug did not go out, but she will be towed in the first thing this morning. She is seventeen days from San Francisco and has a light load.

Alameda Takes Mail.

The Alameda, will sail for San Francisco at 9 o'clock this morning. She will take the mail. The next mail will not go until April 11 on the Ventura. The Alameda takes a full cargo of some 1500 tons. Part of it is a shipment of Honolulu refined sugar. She also takes a big deck load of bananas. She is due in San Francisco Tuesday morning.

SHIPPING NOTES.

The Patterson arrived at Port Townsend from Honolulu March 27th.

The American-Hawaiian liner Oregonian was reported off Diamond Head this morning shortly after midnight.

The Pacific Mail liner Korea sailed from Yokohama yesterday according to cable advices received by Hackfeld & Co. She has 1,100 tons of freight for Honolulu and accommodations for about fifty passengers. Evidently she has a big through list.

MORMON CONFERENCE AT LAIE TODAY

The Mormons will leave this morning on the train for Laie, where the conference will be held for four days. There are many who came from the other islands and will go to Laie tomorrow. They will be provided for at the plantation.

There will be hundreds to go this morning, with exceptions of some elders and others who are working for the Government. These are Elders Abraham Fernandez and Edwin K. Fernandez, Elder Daniel Kikaha, U. S. District Court bailiff, Elder Geo. K. Lowe, Elder Wahiako of the Government Stables, and many others on the road; also Elders Jos. Luhiwa and Haiola of the police force. Some will travel on Friday morning's train and others will ride on horses. President Samuel E. Woolley will preside at Laie and President Albert Davis will head the delegations leaving today.

BORN.

MEAD—In this city, April 4, to the wife of Royal D. Mead, a daughter.

The senators have about arranged their line up for the baseball game to be played on Saturday afternoon between nine chosen from the membership of the two Houses. The Solons are, however, a little shy on material, and so Prince Kuhio and Messenger Nahale have been pressed in. The Senatorial team will be according to present appearance: Lane, pitcher; Haystack, first base; Kalama, left field or catcher; Bishop, second or third base; McCandless, shortstop; Dowsett, center field or third base; Woods, third base or pitcher; Prince Cupid, right field or catcher; Nahale, catcher; Isenberg, captain and substitute. The House line-up is not yet announced, but it is given out by the committee having the affair in charge that it will be a strong one, the lower body, being chock full of material. Governor Carter will be asked to umpire the game, and will be furnished with a mask, and Secretary Atkinson will be assistant umpire. Burns of the Star will score.
